On April 21, 2014 at approximately 11:46 am, Special Agent [REDACTED] with the FBI and myself interviewed [REDACTED] regarding this incident. The interview was conducted in Judge Tena Campbell's chambers and was recorded with a digital recorder. The interview recording will be stored [REDACTED] The following is a synopsis of the interview conducted and is in no way a word for word transcription:

[REDACTED] is Judge Campbell's Courtroom Deputy and Case Manager. [REDACTED] explained court started a bit late today because a couple of jurors showed up late. [REDACTED] stated the defendant, Siale Angilau was in a "pissy" mood today for a variety of reasons including problems with his current incarceration. According to [REDACTED] Angilau's defense attorney [REDACTED] informed the court that his client was in a foul mood and he hadn't a chance to shower yet and was wearing the same shirt that he wore on Friday. [REDACTED] stated Angilau was sitting at the defense table in between his two attorneys. [REDACTED] was focused on the witness who was testifying [REDACTED] during the hearing because he was speaking very softly and [REDACTED] was adjusting the volume of his microphone. [REDACTED] believes the jurors would of had a "birds eye view" of the shooting had they been paying attention. [REDACTED] observed Angilau stand up and grab something from the table he was seated at. [REDACTED] believes the object obtained by Angilau was a pen and she observed him run towards the witness stand. Angilau bumped the attorney seated next to him out of the way and "charged the witness..." [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] "flew out of the chair." [REDACTED] assisted with getting Judge Campbell out of the courtroom. After the shots were fired, [REDACTED] heard the Marshal's tell Angilau, "We can't help you unless you drop what you're holding". [REDACTED] did not see anything in Angilau's hand, but she did see him "fly" over the witness stand. [REDACTED] heard approximately four shots being fired, but she didn't see who fired the shots. [REDACTED] remembers a Marshal being positioned behind [REDACTED] during the hearing.

[REDACTED] did not see what Angilau reached for, but she assumes it was some sort of writing utensil. [REDACTED] said Angilau grabbed the unknown object from the defense table with his right hand. Angilau said something unintelligible prior to running towards the witness. [REDACTED] explained that Angilau was not restrained because his restraints could not be concealed from the jurors. There were discussions with various people prior to the trial taking place regarding Angilau's restraints during the trial. [REDACTED] stated a decision was made that Angilau would be unrestrained during the trial. The interview was concluded at approximately 12:02 pm. [REDACTED]

On April 21, 2014 at approximately 12:05 pm, Special Agent [REDACTED] with the FBI along with myself, interviewed Judge Tena Campbell regarding this incident. The interview was conducted in Judge Campbell's chambers and was recorded with a digital recorder. The interview recording will be stored [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The following is a synopsis of the interview conducted and is in no way a word for word transcription:

Judge Campbell stated Siale Angilau's attorney told her before the hearing started that Angilau was having issues with where he was being incarcerated. Judge Campbell asked Angilau if he was going to "behave" during the proceedings. Judge Campbell could not remember Angilau's response to her question, but she thinks he muttered yes. Angilau's defense attorney [REDACTED] informed Judge Campbell that Angilau was in a bad mood because he hadn't the opportunity to take a shower today, he was wearing a dirty shirt, and he was housed in maximum security. Judge Campbell described Angilau as a very "passive" person, and he does not make many facial expressions. Judge Campbell reported Angilau has had a "shiner" (black eye) since the jury selection on Friday (April 18th). Judge Campbell [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was paying particular attention to the witness and the jury box, not necessarily Angilau. Judge Campbell stated Angilau stood up, pushed aside his attorney's, and heard some yelling and saw the Marshal "firing" (weapon). Judge Campbell was surprised that you could actually see muzzle flash while a weapon is being fired. Judge Campbell heard approximately four or five shots before she was escorted out of the court by her Courtroom Deputy [REDACTED]

Judge Campbell does not know who the Marshal is that fired the shots. Judge Campbell did see Angilau "dive" over the top of the witness stand, but she doesn't think he said anything. Judge Campbell stated Angilau had something in his hand, but she doesn't know what the object was. Judge Campbell was surprised that such a large man (Angilau), was able to move so fast and jump so high. When Judge Campbell saw the shots being fired, she thought to herself, "Well, that's probably all that would have stopped him." Judge Campbell agreed with the fact that the incident happened so quickly, that there was no opportunity to de-escalate the situation and there was no time to "grab" Angilau. Judge Campbell was glad the Marshal took care of the situation. Judge Campbell stated Angilau was not restrained and she learned late last week that the table the defendant was to be sitting at did not provide ample cover to conceal his restraints. Judge Campbell stated the court procedures are going to have to change and she said "I frankly, I'm certainly never going to do this again..." Judge Campbell reiterated that the table inside the court must be changed. Judge Campbell said in the future, the defendant will be shackled. Judge Campbell admits that she gave the instruction not to shackle Angilau. Judge Campbell stated she never heard Angilau say anything when he stood up and ran towards the witness. Judge Campbell does not remember what hand Angilau was holding the object in. Judge Campbell believes the Marshal who fired his weapon was directly to Angilau's right side, near the jury box. Judge Campbell estimates the Marshal was approximately six feet away from Angilau when he fired his weapon. Judge Campbell believes Angilau was "mid-air" or had just "landed" on the witness when he was shot. Judge Campbell believes the Marshal did what had to be done to protect the witness. Judge Campbell stated Angilau was "just nuts." The interview was concluded at approximately 12:18 pm.
